SEE® Brand Quad Seal Bag Pouches

The perfect solution for packing and protecting large volumes of products.

BENEFITS

The quad seal pouch is ideally suited for pack sizes between 500g and 15kg, making it perfect for wholesale packaging in the tea and coffee industry, as well as retail packaging of products such as snacks, pet food, and sports nutrition. This format presents an excellent opportunity to amplify your marketing and promotional messaging through high-quality print. With no back seal, all four panels of the pouch can showcase your brand messaging, creating an impressive visual impact. The quad seal bag's robust yet compact design, with seals on all four corners and a box-like bottom, ensures its appealing presence on supermarket shelves.

- Quad seal format provides additional space and uninterrupted designs for packaging.
- Our production facility is BRC accredited, using only food grade materials.
- Quad seal pouch offers a great opportunity to amplify messaging through print due to its four-panel display.
- Its robust yet compact design provides an appealing presence on shelves.
