SEE® Brand Spout Pouches

An innovative and convenient alternative to rigid glass, metal and plastic bottles.

BENEFITS

Spout pouches offer excellent strength and visual impact, making them the ideal choice for on-the-go packaging of liquid and powder products. With their increasing popularity among brands and retailers, spout pouches are perfect for packing liquids, viscous materials, and fine powder products. Available in various shapes and sizes, this format ensures powerful branding and attractive shelf presentation. Depending on your product requirements and filling capabilities, spout pouches can be equipped with different spout fittings and delivery methods. Our premium spout pouch packaging solutions provide exceptional barrier properties against oxygen, moisture, and light.
